

Online Application System for Admission to Undergraduate (Direct (Non-JUPAS))

Guidelines to Application

Thank you for using the Direct (Non-JUPAS) Online Application System (OAS) for Admission to Undergraduate Programmes for Academic Year 2027/28.

Important Notes for Applicants:

1. The University has not authorised any agents or agencies to manage admissions processes or to offer guaranteed or supplementary admission slots. All applications and fees must be submitted directly to Hong Kong Baptist University.
2. Provision of false, inaccurate or misleading information or document(s) by you or any third party on your behalf as part of your application for admission will lead to straight disqualification and cancellation of any offers made by the University. If the circumstances warrant, the University may also report the case to the relevant authorities and/or law enforcement bodies.
3. All applications will be reviewed holistically based on academic performance as well as other factors, such as interview performance. Successful submission of an application, and/or meeting all University Entrance Requirements and programme-specific requirements, does not guarantee admissions.
4. Admission scholarships are awarded based on a holistic review, subject to competition and availability. The University reserves the right to change the terms or withdraw, the scholarships. In case of any dispute/disagreement, the University's decision is final.
5. Local and non-local applicants are considered under various admissions schemes and are required to pay different tuition fees. Applicants shall provide identity documents to support their claim of local or non-local status during the admissions process. If there is any change to your local or non-local status, you shall immediately notify the Admissions Office and provide all relevant documentary evidence by email at ardirect@hkbu.edu.hk. The University reserves the right to vary the terms of, or withdraw, the admission offer and/or the admission scholarship if there is any change to your local or non-local status.
6. In case of any dispute/disagreement, the University's decision is final.

Eligibility

7. This application system is designed for Non-JUPAS applicants seeking admission to HKBU's Undergraduate Programmes. Non-JUPAS applicants include:

 - UnionPay Online Payment (UPOP) – payment by China UnionPay (CUP 中国银联) card

Number of Programme Choices and Offer

11. Each applicant may submit only one application, with up to two programme choices, in the same admission cycle. Only one offer of admission will be made to each successful applicant. Successful applicants should carefully consider their decision before accepting an offer.

Application Procedures

12. The online application procedures are as follows:
- (a) Sign Up for a user account in the Online Application System (OAS) to apply for admission.
 - (b) Activate the account by clicking the link provided in the email sent to the registered email address.
 - (c) Sign In the activated user account to complete the online application form in English, unless otherwise specified. Applicants may refer to the "Demo" page for instructions on completing the online application step-by-step.
 - (d) Save the input data before proceeding to the next page or section of the application process, or before signing out of the account. Any unsaved data will be lost if users proceed to the next page or section or sign out without saving.
If an online application has been left idle for 15 minutes, the account will be automatically signed out, and any unsaved data will be lost. The account concerned will be suspended for 15 minutes.
 - (e) Print or save a copy of the completed application form for checking and record purposes before submission, as it will not be available for printing or downloading after submission.
 - (f) Pay the non-transferrable and non-refundable application fee online after completing the application form and then submit the completed application.

Amendment of Data After Submission of Application

13. Applicants should ensure all information entered in the OAS is accurate before submitting their application. Once the application has been submitted, no amendments can be made to the submitted data, except for (1) uploading supporting documents; and/or (2) updating the cumulative GPA (cGPA)/ average score (if applicable). Requests to change the study year or programme choice(s) after submission will not be entertained.
14. If there are any changes to personal particulars (e.g., identity documents held, contact number(s), correspondence address, etc.) during the application period, applicants concerned should notify the University immediately by email at ardirect@hkbu.edu.hk.

Announcement of Application Results

15. Applicants who receive admission offers will be notified of the offer details by email and/or SMS. They may also view their offer details via the OAS. To accept an admission offer, applicants are required to pay an Admission Confirmation Fee by a specified deadline. Details will be available on the offer letter.
16. For applicants who do not receive a notification of offer by the end of August, they may assume that their applications have been unsuccessful. The final application status can be viewed via the OAS. No separate written notification will be issued to unsuccessful applicants.

Student Visa/Entry Permits

17. Successful non-local applicants who require a visa/entry permit to enter the HKSAR for study (i.e., student visa/entry permit) should submit their applications to the University at least eight (8) weeks before their intended arrival in Hong Kong for commencement of studies in the designated programme, and in any case no later than the programme commencement. Upon acceptance of an admission offer, the University will assist the non-local students concerned in submitting their student visa/entry permit applications to the Immigration Department.
